MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Security

SUBJECT : DDP Report on Reduction of Top Secret Material at Non-Government Locations

REFERENCE : White House Memorandum for Heads of All U.S. Departments and Agencies
Subj: Security Clearance Review dated June 30, 1971

1. This memorandum is submitted in satisfaction of the task assigned on 23 July 1971 to the DDP/[] to:

25X1

"Initiate immediately a review within the DDP of those individuals and organizations outside the government (interpreted to mean contractors and consultants) holding Top Secret or compartmented material with an aim of drastically reducing such non-government holdings. "

2. No component of the DDP with the exception of FI/D reports that they have any contractor or consultant holding TS or codeword level material.

3. FI/D reports that [] [], retains one SI level document. The continuing need for retention of this document has been carefully reviewed with the operational division, the senior [] supervisor, and the FI/D

Security Officer. A determination was made that there is continuing need for this document at the contractor facility. The physical security of the facility was reviewed and was found acceptable. The facility has been in existence for approximately ten years and has been approved by the Office of Security for retention of COMINT material.

4. Apology is herewith offered for tardiness in submitting this report.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, [REDACTED] DDP

25X1A

SUBJECT : Review of Security Clearances and Classified Material Held by Contractors and Consultants

1. Pursuant to your memorandum of 27 July 1971, the undersigned has conducted a review of classified material in the TOP SECRET and SI categories and also a review of the clearances held by contractor/consultant personnel on contracts for FI/Division D. It is pointed out that we are only responsible for the compartmented end of the contract and I assume that the Office of Logistics Security Staff will advise you by separate memorandum of other personnel in the particular companies which hold clearances less than TOP SECRET or CODEWORD.

2. Consultants.

Name of Firm	No. of Personnel Holding Clearances	Type of Clearance	No. of Documents Held
[REDACTED]	3	TOP SECRET/SI	None
	1	TOP SECRET/SI	None

25X1A5A1 [] The clearances and the document held by [] 25X1A5A1
[] in the performance of their contractual obligations have been carefully reviewed with the operational component concerned and it is necessary that the document remain in 25X1A5A1 the custody of [] at this time. This facility has been in existence for approximately ten years and has been approved by the Office of Security for retention of COMINT material.

25X1A5A1 [] In reviewing the clearances, a determination was made by the operational component, the senior [] 25X1A5A1 [] supervisor responsible for the project, and the undersigned. As a result of this review, twenty-one of the TOP SECRET clearances will be downgraded to SECRET clearances. In addition, one of the TOP SECRET/SI clearances held will be downgraded to a SECRET clearance.

	Name of Firm	No. of Personnel Holding Clearances	Type of Clearance	No. of Docu- ments Held
25X1A5A1	[]	12	TOP SECRET/SI	None

Due to the nature of the contract with [] 25X1A5A1 which is providing SIGINT maintenance support to a Third Party, no reduction in the type of clearance nor the number of people cleared at this facility can be made at this time.

	Name of Firm	No. of Personnel Holding Clearances	Type of Clearance	No. of Docu- ments Held
25X1A5A1	[]	*	TOP SECRET/SI	One SI

*There are approximately five or six [] 25X1A5A1 personnel working on DDP SI contracts who have the TOP SECRET/SI clearances but the clearances were requested by DDS&T and not by FI/D; therefore, to avoid duplication, FI/D will not report the number of TOP SECRET/SI cleared personnel at [] 25X1A5A1
